Ministering Today Kym Wade

Good morning, 2025 has begun!

So what will 2025 be like for you? I think the answer to that question lies not in what your plans are but in whom you will follow.

In Proverbs 19:21 it says, “Many are the plans in the mind of a man, but it is the purpose of the LORD that will stand.” If you will choose to submit yourself fully to the Lord Jesus Christ this year and be obedient to His leading you will have the blessing of seeing God’s purposes worked out in your life.

So the question is not how will 2025 be for you but is simply will you submit your ways to the Lord Jesus Christ and walk out 2025 His way or will you do it your own way?

Of course, any of us who claim Jesus as our Lord and saviour will say we will do it His way. What else could we say to such a question! But is this true? Well, you test a tree by its fruit as Jesus said when He was talking about how to test a prophet. So too can we test our own lives by the fruit we are producing.

Maybe the answer is we’d like to do it God’s way but we often do it our own. So how do we move from our way to God’s way? Praise God He is merciful and patient with us. He is able to teach us and guide us in the way we should go. His word instructs us how to live His way.

So we are going to step through the book of James, often seen as the proverbs of the new testament and learn from the practical wisdom God has laid out for us there as we begin our walk with Jesus through 2025.

May this year be a year of deep relationship with Jesus and with each other.

Love Kym
