Ministering Peter Dart

Good morning, all. Today we are going to have a look at what I personally see to be one of the most profound statements Jesus made just prior to His crucifixion. In my understanding, this passage identifies not only the manner in which He conducted His teaching ministry here on earth, but also a direction for us to follow in accepting the calling to further that ministry.

John 18:36–38 (NKJV) 36 Jesus answered, “My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here.” 37 Pilate therefore said to Him, “Are You a king then?” Jesus answered, “You say rightly that I am a king. For this cause I was born, and for this cause I have come into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice.” 38 Pilate said to Him, “What is truth?” And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, “I find no fault in Him at all.”

Just as Jesus, we are called to preach, teach and present the Kingdom of God in both Word and power, fully believing and walking in the faith and wisdom Jesus gives is through the power of the indwelling Holy Spirit. We live in a time whereby the truth and value of the Word of God is openly challenged by most of our western cultures. Abandoning the teachings of scripture upon which most western cultures are originally founded, they have sought and followed the wisdom of man and ended up with the mess that we find the world in today. As followers of the Lord Jesus Christ, we know that the only answer for this world today is Jesus, and we are called as ambassadors of the Kingdom of God to follow in the Ministry of Jesus to that end. Today we will examine the purpose and focus of that ministry and look to scripture to make it clear to us just what our calling is.

Romans 12:1–2 (NKJV) 12 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. 2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

Blessings

Peter
